Processing transactions

Depending on your transaction, processing times may vary. We may put the amount of your transaction on hold for a certain period in accordance with our hold funds policy. This allows us to verify that the funds are available from the account at the other financial institution. Make sure you allow sufficient time for your transactions to be processed.

You can log into online or mobile banking at any time to view any amounts that may be on hold.

Security and privacy

The security and privacy of your personal information is important to us. Your password to our online, mobile and telephone banking services is the key to your personal information and should be kept private. For more information about online security and our commitment to privacy, visit manulifebank.ca or contact us to request a copy of the Manulife Bank Privacy Policy.
